I AM AMY ALLEN

ALL RIGHT EVERYONE, if you're reading this chances are that I am not a large fan of you, because anyone that knows me knows that I will not be writing anything that I wish to.

I Will dO the BeSt I caN To EnterTAiN thE ResT of YoU SpeCIAlItes.....

If you know me as DoubleA, all the power to ya, Koah, my hats off. Do me a favor though, don't remember me for a name.

So what can we remember, probably not much. Way back in the days at the corner, after school, dale, the park. Walking home or downtown #20 FOLLOW the LeaDeR.

Then later in life, realizing completely the meaning of not following the leader. Which is one word of AdvCe. Be yourself. I watch people deastroyed by others, why? Don't waste yourself, you have too much potential.

And now. The nOw time. Dunkin Donuts as the savior of georGetown and reigning over neighboring towns with 5 pizza places is it now? The only thing I can think about is getting away from this lifestyle. Get me my own life, and if I see you later, then so be it, but if not, it was ---- knowing you. All I ask is that you live your life and I'll live mine. Whatever job you do, remember to give people their freedoms.

Now for the confusing part you know nothing about...

Pink flamingos, pink fluffy bunnies, SubarU WAGON, 3-D Nachos with Danny P., G-Period junior year thanx for that class everyone, Up Against the Stem, SEEDLESS, locobazooka..disturbed, Smores poparts, 1/2days, goldfish, Phil Blanchette, Jess's basement, caramel apples. "THE LONG ROUTE" ALL the WAY

And remember:EVERYTHING happens for a reason. Until then, 4/20 and joyous laughter.

Big Bill- Radnal. I'm sure that isn't a word but you can't forget it. 3rd grade, the lead doctor. Playing F-Zero. Maybe one day you'll get a car, hopefully soon. Once you do we'll go up to St. Mary's after a snowstorm. Always remember that I'm just trying to be the best that I can be!

Mark- Thank you for helping me in life. Not only have you been my teacher but you have also been one of my best friends. Working with you has been great and you always treated me like an equal and not like an employee.

Steph- You're crazy. Completely nuts. I think that if I was a nice person I would write nice things but I'm not so I won't. Have fun in Amherst and stay away from the pirates, you know the ones.

Anne- School's over. No more classes or getting up early. At least not for High School. McDonalds at night with the shaguar. Lizzy's crazy party after the prom. Our 7th Anniversary. Don't be jealous of Eileen, you're still my favorite.

Kevin- Thanks for teaching me to play the guitar. You were my first friend when I moved here back in the day. I'm glad that we've stayed friends all these years and that you finally remembered my name.

This may be the last time we're all together, but no matter what the future holds, no matter how far we travel, a part of us, a very important part will always remain here, at Georgetown High School. To my family- Thank you all for sticking by me in some of the hardest times of my life. To everyone- You have all been an integral part of my life, I would not be the person I am today has it not been for you all.

But when I think about what we've all been through together maybe it's not the destination that matters, maybe it's the journey, and if that journey takes a little longer so we can all do something we all believe in, I can't think of any place I'd rather be or with any people I'd rather be with." - Harry Kim..... To the journey!

To the Class of 2002 we are tomorrow's leaders and will grow up to fast in the years to come, but don't ever forget where you came from, why, and what it was like to be a child, to laugh, and to grow up. Good luck in whatever you may venture out to do, and until next time... Good-bye.

Summer of 01' was very fun, a little vague, but fun. Ray I bet you will never forget how to get to the mall again. When we tied you up and put you up for sale. Fixing your car with a 2x4. Our annual run on the highway in the Regal and laying down strips in front of your house. Stop sign means Spin Tires On Pavement. Seeing Black Sabbath at Ozzfest and making it home safe. Making jumps for the snowmobile and going over the wrong jump. Walking home from Thurlow early in the morning. Trips out to the woods or your back yard. Amy and Jess when we went for our annual trips on Baldpate. How we always take the long way wherever we are going. Jess is going to park her car at park and ride and walk back to her party. Amy makes her own parking spot at the mall and hiding behind Toys R Us. Nicole now you know how to shut car doors properly thanks to me. Your Kia will never ever beat my Regal. Thanks for fixing my rear view mirror for me. Abandoning my car and walking through two cities.

*"The Road goes ever on and on
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say." - Tolkien-*

Scott D- It came out great! Sorry about the acid spill in class. We'll have to go to Taco Bell again sometime. Miss Clemens! Honestly, my highschool years are a blur to me. But I'll do the best I can to write something meaningful. Friends mean everything to me, and that means that I'm very thankful that I have my friends. I don't know what to think of my life. My past life, my present life, or my future life. I don't know what the future holds for me, just like no one else knows. A period chemistry class with FrasierDAN, DAN, THE LAUGHING MAN IF HE CAN'T LAUGH NO ONE CAN!!

AMY:Porkchop.420...That's really all I can say b/c that's pretty much all I can remember from this year and the year's past. We were always there 4 each other when we both needed someone. It's all in the family! I'll never 4get that song or our walks home from downtown. The places to be: The Rock, Dale, The Corner, and most of all, Pizza Factory. Onion rings, french fries, and mozzarella sticks every single day. ½ days, S'mores poparts (hell, s'mores anything) My basement "parties" You didn't know how "bad" you were until walking upstairs. I'm not going to put too much thought in this b/c everything that happened we already know about and it's not that much more important when on paper or in a yearbook. What's important is that we have those good moments and memories 4ever. The lesson from our friendship was a well taught and well learned lesson that I will always remember, never 4get. I love you Amy!! Don't forget Amsterdam, Canada, and cruise when we're 21.

JOHN: This year's been a blast..420!!! Taking the long route everywhere. The parties were great(sorry) I know my car's a piece of shiznit but you don't have to rub it in. You're a great person and friend. Give other people get a chance to be nice to you once in a while RAY:Reggae. What What weird, Weirido! This year's been fun so far. It's cool that your door's always open. Thanx 4 trying 2 help me when I was sad.(j/k, you did help me) you're cool, don't get that. you have a good head on your shoulders and that's definantly good. Don't change.

MAURA: Molva... I love you! Smile always. Keep that frown upside down.You never fail to make me smile and I love that. Don't ever change and hang in there no matter what. you're a great person and friend, don't ever 4-get that. Everything happens for a reason and life lessons are learned all the time from everything that you dou are.

In the Bock of the Reol

Railroad yard in Son Jose I wondered desolote
In front of o tonk foctory And sat on o bench
Neor the switchmen's shock. A flower lay on the hay on
The ospholt highway--The dread hoy flower
I thought--it had o Brittle block stem ond
Corolla af yellowish dirty Spikes like Jesus' inchlong
Crown, and o soiled Dry center catton tuft
Like o used shoving brush That's been lying under
The goroge af o year. Yellow, yellow flower, ond
Flower of industry, tough, spikey ugly flower,
Flower nonetheless, With the farm of the great yellow
Rase in your broin!
This is the flower of the World.

Age: 17 Occupation: ~~Student~~ Snowboarder Home Mountain: Sunday River (hopefully somewhere in Colorado someday) Stance: centered, positive 9 front, negative 6 rear Likes: fresh pow, park days, sunsets, laughter, holding hands while walking along the beach, sharing feelings, riding with friends on pow days, Special Blend, and Windell's snowboard camp.

Shout-Outs: I just want to say "catch you later" to people I associated with these past four years. True friends are hard to come by. Jacky H. - You are my "actual" best friend. Watch out for that wavel 6-donut challenge, ridin' on the pegs in the heat of summer. Pass the trash game. Your cat will break world records. Thanks for all the newspaper quotes you never said. Good luck in college and in life, I know you will always make it happen, and I am super-proud to know you. Paul M. - Wait, you don't go here anymore. Ohio/Sophomore connection. "I am responsible for the girls coming to Gaven's night!" "are you sceerious? oh my gahd!" Jordan look-alike contest. I miss bringing you away from the brink of self-destruction. Remember all the Gaven's good times. Derek B. - Hama Ina. (19 "pumpkins") From one town to the next, Gaven's is a legacy. It's all about the wine. Mike, Jessie, Nick (Harry), Hastings and Franklin were the "crew". Make salads by night, then party by...by night. Tim's driveway was fun, and warm too. Chilling at my father's house when he went to Thailand, "I spilled the rug! "Ice LOE" MSI: and you got it! Tim K. - Keep fixing those American cars. Don't let the Germans make fun of you. Thanks for the hospitality buddy :) Party in the woods, just bring the XXXxs, a grill, and your 4x4. We'll have to ride the pow at Stowe someday. Alex H. - What can I say? Too many fun times to list. Glow-in-the-dark frisbee. Marshmallow eggs off the roof. Foosball tourneys, Mallrats, Wayne's World, and Clerks. Cheesy horror flicks, and every time I ever threw up at your house. We will road trip someday buddy. Sam M. - I think Niglet ripped me off. "No, Sam doesn't go here anymore." You taught me how to rock that standard return... Doing 90' on 495. Vincent P. - Summer of '01. Rockport Quarries. Skimming was wicked fun; Good Harbor Beach for flatland, and railsides! Every snowboard trip we ever made by bus. Nordic Village fires with Attitash lunch trays. Try the sex-change rail man, no try it! Who spun '5 first? I think it was me at Okemo in '98. Hopefully we will be living in Colorado, ripping the pow and park in college...studying huh? Ryan H. - Crazy times in Manchester. I'm still pretty sure that I live there. The inflatable boat with no motor, Island hopping in the summer, but we were never allowed to go to Misery. Jumping off the train bridge into the harbor, and the Mystical Fire God. Franklin: Haha, words cannot describe :) Thanks to: My father for being an exceptional role model, Tina Dixon for teaching me how to rip the super-pipe, Mike Arangio for teaching me to be a calm person by example, and Drake Bindings and Northwave Boots for making exceptional products. Snowboarding has been and always will be my life. I live to ride, and will never be far from the snow. Special Blend!

Imagine your brain as a canister filled w/ ink, yeah, now think of your body as the pen where the ink resides. Fuse the 2; kapow! What are you now? You're the human magic marker, won't you please surprise my eyes?! It's in your nature, you can paint whatever picture you like. No matter what Ted Koppel says on Channel 4 tonight. So modify this third rock from the sun, by painting myriads of pictures with the colors of one. Picture the scene, where whatever you thought, would, in the blink of an eye, manifest and become illustrated. You'd be sure man that every line drawn reflected a life that you loved not an existence that you hated. I'm sick of painting in black and white, so sick of limiting myself to fit your definition. Trying to sum up the best of times and the worst of times in a paragraph is completely impossible for me. There are way to many inside jokes from movie parties staring the notorious "punching nuns" to french with l'anana wrongness. Nathalia Kress Jereissati - from Brazil!

OK, first I want to say thanks to my parents because they gave me the opportunity to be here this year. Thanks to my host family, they accepted me and treated me like a daughter. To my new friends I want to say that I will never forget you and that you made my life so better this year that you can't imagine! Kisses and hugs for you all!!

Being an exchange student helped me learn a lot about the North American culture, but this is not all, it made me learn how can be my reaction trying to make new friends and to get in their habits and everything. And another thing is that I learned a lot about myself while I was here and I learned. I tried to be a better person after all that I earned. Thanks to my teachers, you were wonderful! I loved to sing- it was my first time!!- And to have a cooking class to!

Well, I want to say that this experience was one of the best things of my life, I wish I could do this again! I wish all the good feelings of the world to all you who made part of my life in the year of 2001-2002, I hope you never forget me!!!

Foi um prazer conhecer os EUA! Muitos beijos e tudo de bom!!!

Quote from Jess Dupuis, "Dan, Dan, The Laughing Man, if he can't laugh no one can." Thanks Jess for all the laughs throughout the years. Hey Erin and Jenah, where's the "H" pills. I need some CHERTS!!!! What great times we had in that class. Amy and Nicole, thanks for all the goldfish and the 3D's. Steph, what would I do without you. You naughty girl!! Nick, Emily, Kristine, Elizabeth, and Erin. What awesome things went on in that French class. "Le phoque en cuir", was quite the statement. Remember the Quebec trip? Nick, you never failed to amaze anyone in that class with your random outbursts in French. Emily R., You were always there for me when I needed it. I hoped I was there for you when you needed it. Thank you!! Finally, the memorable lunch table. All the discussions about the muppets and the crazy pacific islander comments by Sandy. I know I'm forgetting people but you know who you are. I just can't fit you all into this tiny space. I just want to say good bye for now and that I hope I see all of you again. Goodbye!!!!

Farewell

Looking back at those younger years, of turtle sandboxes, recess, and story-time I thought this year would never come. But here we are, the graduating class of 2002 about to start the journey of a lifetime.

I'd like to begin by thanking Mrs. Clay and Mr. Luca, for without their hard work and dedication the yearbook would be a couple of blank pages.

Even though I came here junior year, I felt a certain closeness to the class of 2002. I didn't have to sit alone on my first day and that is owed to one person . . . Sandy Kereakoglow.

As I look back on my high school years, certain memories come to mind; standing in the freezing cold, as we emerged victorious from the Powder-puff game, the commotion between the senior and junior parking dispute, how many times we broke Mr. Fraser's beakers in chemistry, the whole day study session at Mrs. Patriquin's house. These memories will never be forgotten.

As senior year slowly came to an end, it was time to collaborate all twelve years of memories into one yearbook. In a frenzied panic, the four of us came together as seniors to finally end our high school careers. It was tiring, but all in all we hope it is something you will treasure for eternity.

As June 2nd approaches we plan to go our separate ways but we always have the fond memories we have created at Georgetown High.

"In the simplest terms, in the most convenient definitions of what we found out was that each one of us is a brain, an athlete, a basket-case, a princess, and a criminal."

Breakfast Club

Meg Keady

Kathryn Donahue

Emily Martel

Margaret Saunders

How many people would step in three weeks into senior year as advisor to a class that was about to embark on their hardest year of school? Few people would accept such a challenge, but Mr. Fraser took it on willingly and without hesitation.

Mr. Fraser has arrived at Georgetown High School for the last 28 years, eager to teach students. This year he walked through the school's back door after driving in his new pick up truck, carrying his briefcase, lunch cooler, thermos, and a smile big enough to make the whole class excited to learn. As students struggle balancing equations, molar mass, and polarity, Mr. Fraser has been there to make the work less intimidating.

If there is ever a possibility of a snow day, Mr. Fraser will give his students a full weather report.

Georgetown High School, especially the senior class, appreciates the hard work, effort, and character that Mr. Fraser has brought to our school. As we close this chapter in our lives and begin a new one, we all will carry with us the life lessons that he has taught.

Kevin Hiscock
Class of 2002

If you are looking for a man that is dedicated to the students he taught, the class he advised, and his family, look no further than Mr. O'Malley. Mr. O'Malley was the advisor of the Class of 2002 for three years and the start of a fourth. His life took another path and at a great loss to Georgetown High School, Mr. O'Malley left.

The Class of 2002 was lucky to have an advisor as dedicated as Mr. O'Malley. He led the class more than once through adversity and conflict imperiously and with great class.

Mr. O'Malley has been missed since the day he left and can never be replaced. In some way or another Mr. O'Malley has made a place in the memories of anyone he ever interacted with.

Everyone who knew him is a wiser and better person for having done so.

Thank you!
Evan O'Reilly
